1849 MORMON
$5 TERRITORIAL GOLD

Choice Extremely Fine

Shortly after the Mormons arrived in Salt Lake City they issued their own gold coins made from newly mined California gold. Brigham Young instigated the coinage and supervised the mint. Each coin had substantially less gold in it than face value and were not popular. Consequently most all of them were melted. Today they are extremely scarce. It's been years since we've had one. Most all are weakly struck on one side or the other. Our coin is hand picked for its sharp strike on both sides showing details very rarely seen on any of these. A once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Please call to reserve.
