1883 "NO CENTS" V NICKEL

Premium Quality BU

This was the first year and design of the liberty V nickel. It did not contain the word cents on the reverse. For this reason, people were gold plating them and passing them off as $5 gold liberty coins. The mint realized the error and changed the coins to read Cents on all others minted from 1883-1912.

"EL CAZADOR"

1/4 REALS SHIPWRECK COINS

On January 11, 1784, the El Cazador disembarked from Mexico heading to New Orleans containing almost 14 tons of silver coins. It never made it across the Gulf of Mexico and was lost at sea. After it was lost, the Spanish were never able to stabilize their weak monetary system and were forced to transfer the land to France. 3 short years later, France sold roughly 1 million square miles of land to the young United States through the Louisiana Purchase. Each coin is unique and a great story in history.
