CIVIL WAR MEMORABILIA

MUSKET BALL

& CIVIL WAR ERA INDIAN CENT

The Civil War began on April 12, 1861 with the Confederate army firing cannon balls at Ft. Sumter in Charleston, South Carolina. Ft. Sumter's Union Commander Major Robert Anderson surrendered after less than two days of bombardment, leaving the fort in the hands of Confederate soldier Pierre G. T. Beauregard.

On the surface the Civil War may have seemed like a lopsided conflict with 23 Northern Union states having an enormous advantage in population, manufacturing (including gun production) and railroad construction. The 7 Southern Confederate states had a strong military tradition, along with some of the best soldiers and commanders in the nation. They also had a cause they believed in; preserving their long-held traditions and institutions, chief among these being slavery. The Civil War was the greatest war in American history, 3 million fought with 600,000 paying the ultimate price, death. Civil War Battlefields are littered with artifacts of battles. The war ended in May of 1865. We offer a piece of Civil War memorabilia in the form of a Civil War Era Copper Nickel Indian Cent and a Civil War Era Lead Musket Ball. Coin and Musket Ball come housed in an "old timey" black drawstring bag. We have a very limited number available, so order early as they will sell out.

U.S. SILVER COIN BAGS

Silver coin bags are one of the most cost efficient ways to own silver. They can be easily divided for storage or later resale and the premium per ounce is one of the lowest of all silver products. Each $1000 face value bag contains pre-1965 dimes and quarters. There's approximately 715 ounces net pure silver in every bag (give or take a little because of wear on the coins).

Do call for current price and confirmation before ordering.
