VINTAGE SILVER CASINO TOKENS

Premium Quality BU

Casino tokens were first introduced in 1965, when the rising price of silver made the use of actual silver dollars problematic. Good only at the issuing casino, these tokens could be dropped into a slot machine or used at the tables for their $10 face value. Eventually, these tokens became collectible items themselves. With the introduction of the Ike Dollar in 1971, silver coins and tokens were removed completely. Each token contains a .6 oz silver center housed in a brass ring.

U.S. TREASURY GREASE PEN SILVER BARS

During the 1960s, circulating silver certificates could be exchanged at U.S. Assay offices for their value in physical silver. For those exchanging larger volumes of certificates, silver bars were offered. The vast majority had nothing more than their weight in troy ounces written in grease pencil. These vintage bars have become very collectible and a neat way to buy silver. Please call as these are the only 2 we have.
